picked up. Please contact city clerk Peggy Haines at 541-376-8411 with your name and address if you have debris you would like picked up so she can provide the Kiwanis with that information.

The Kiwanis will be planting flowers along Main Street and in the Galvanized Garden.

Annual Beautification

It is time start to the annual beautification program. Kopacz Nursery is once again donating greenhouse costs and labor for the city hall hanging baskets, hay racks and mall planters. Thanks so much Tania Hoeft and Sherrie Kopacz. Please be sure and thank them when you visit the nursery. They really appreciate hearing from you.

Please consider making a donation to this program which helps cover the cost of other flowers for planters and gardens to improve the look and livability.

Kiwanis Cleanup

The Echo Kiwanis will host a Cleanup Day this year on Saturday May 18 at 8:30 a.m. Club members will pickup yard debris and other trash/debris, but trash must be separated from yard debris if you want it bility in our community, not only in flowers and landscape but community involvement. Thanks so much to Sue Winters and Melissa Lambert for cleaning up dead plant materials from the Main Street gardens and in the park.

Douglas Clement Tree

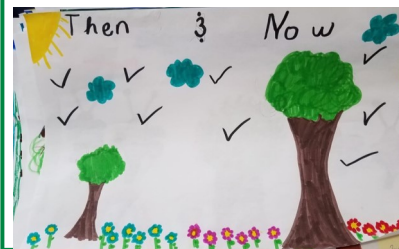

April 18, 2019

Echo is celebrating its 30th year as Oregon's smallest Tree City USA today and to commemorate this event, the city is naming this pine tree the: Douglas Clement Tree.

Doug was Echo's mayor in 1988. He heard that Baker City was the only Tree City in Eastern Oregon. As owner of the Echo Hotel & Tavern, he often heard visitors say how surprised they were when they drove over the hill to see Echo spreading out like an oasis. As a result he urged the city council to approve a Tree City, USA application. In 1989 the first application was successfully submitted.

This pine tree is the oldest remaining tree in this park and is at least 60 years old. It was originally surrounded by Black Locust Trees that were devastated by Locust Borers. The diverse canopy in the park today was started in 1984.

This illustration is the work of McKenzie Hendrix, 5th grade, winner of the 2019 Echo Tree Fair Poster Contest.
